

Please allow the New Jersey Do Not Call law to stand as it is or make it even more stringent. By no means should it allow telemarketers greater freedom. Already, I answer my phone at least 4 times each day to find an unwelcome solicitor on the other end. Protect our privacy!